Jannie Bell Little was born on July 28, 1942 in Williamston, North Carolina to the late Henry and Odie Bell Whitfield.

In 1951 her family moved to Boston, Massachusetts; Jannie was in the 9th grade. It was at the Jeremiah E. Burke High School that she met her best friend, Roberta Montgomery.

After graduating from Jeremiah E. Burke High School, she married the late Harold Little and from that union, Arlan H. Little was born.

During her working career, she worked at Ferdinand's as a switchboard operator, at Trans World Airlines (TWA) as a flight attendant; Crimson Travel, Moors & Cabot, Boston Private Industry Council (PIC) as an administrative assistant, just to name a few.

Jannie loved going to the gym and keeping active. She loved volunteering and helping others in her community. She enjoyed traveling, cooking, shopping, and decorating for all holidays. She also loved modeling and fashion.

On May 7, 2017, Jannie joined the Metropolitan Baptist Church where she participated in the Women' Ministry.

Jannie leaves behind her beloved husband Joseph Brown and his daughter Sonja, her son Arlan Little and his wife Eleni, nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of friends.

She was loved by many and will be missed by all.
