

Valerie Carter
June 29, 1950 – October 3, 2025

Valerie Carter was born June 29, 1959, in Union, South Carolina. She entered eternal rest on October 3, 2025, in Boston, Massachusetts, surrounded by family, love, and prayer.

Valerie attended Sims High School in Union, South Carolina. She then pursued further education in Portland, Oregon, earning her nursing certificate. Valerie was well-traveled, from South Carolina, Oregon, and Pennsylvania, to finally settling down in Boston, Massachusetts.

Valerie During an Usher Ministry Celebration

Her spiritual foundation was rooted in various churches throughout her life before she made her home at Metropolitan Baptist Church in Dorchester, Massachusetts. Valerie loved the Lord with all her heart and loved serving in her church. She served as chairperson of the Usher Ministry, a member of the Kitchen Ministry, and a member of the choir. Valerie was also an Easter Star, Lodge-Helen Davis, CUP 6, Grand Lodge-Miriam Grand, Chapter Carver Lodge.

Valerie was preceded in death by her parents, Willie Carter and Eloise Mobly-Carter, and her stepmom, Pauline Epps-Carter, as well as her siblings, Estelle Kelly, Evelyn Hammond, John Carter, and Curtis Carter. She leaves to cherish her memory, her brother Jessie Carter, sisters JoAnn Carter, and Vera Carter; her children, Larry Carter, Tracy Carter and Tyrone (Rosalyn) Carter; her grandchildren, Kwandel Cartaer, Kyle Carter, Torri Carter, Tyler Carter, Eboni Carter and her great grandson Ezekiel Carter; one aunt, Virginia Peake and a host of nieces, nephews, and loved ones.

Valerie with the Usher Board