

Celebrating the Life of Dianne Jones
September 14, 1949 – July 16, 2026

Dianne Jones, a beloved servant of God, faithful family member, and cherished friend, peacefully answered the Master's call on Thursday, July 16, 2026, at the Rehabilitation and Nursing Center at Everett in Everett, Massachusetts.

Her earthly journey began on September 14, 1949, as the daughter of the late Redell and Robert Lee Jones. Dianne developed a strong foundation of faith, family values, and community at an early age. She attended Burton Heights High School in Williamsburg, Virginia, where she completed her education before embarking on her next chapter.

After graduating from high school, Dianne relocated to Massachusetts and moved in with her aunt, Caritha Winbush, a charter member of Metropolitan Baptist Church. Following in her aunt's footsteps, Dianne joined Metropolitan Baptist Church and immediately found her spiritual home. She became an active and steadfast pillar of the church's ministry, serving faithfully for decades until her health began to decline.

Over her many years of dedicated service, Dianne gave generously of her time and talents across several ministries:

- The Music Ministry: Singing praises in the choir, lifting the spirits of the congregation through song.
- The Usher Board: Greeting members and guests with warmth, grace, and a welcoming smile every Sunday.
- The Finance Ministry: Serving diligently as Financial Secretary, managing church operations with absolute integrity and care.

Professionally, Dianne applied her keen eye for detail as an accountant in the banking industry.

Dianne's life was a true testament to Christian service, quiet strength, and deep commitment to her church family and community. She will be remembered for her devotion to God, her warm spirit, and her unwavering loyalty to those she loved.

Dianne leaves to cherish her memory her brother, Joseph Jones (Carolyn), along with a host of nieces, nephews, extended relatives, and dear friends.

A funeral service was held at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, July 31, 2026, at Whiting Funeral Home in Williamsburg, Virginia. Interment followed at St. John Baptist Church Cemetery in Williamsburg.
