

Christine Underwood Brown

(December 6, 1952 – July 28, 2011)

Christine Brown was born on December 6, 1952 in Boston, Massachusetts and was called home to be with Lord on July 28, 2011 at the Boston Medical Center. Christine also known as “Sista” was the second eldest of eight children born to Berdel Underwood and the late Willie Wesley Underwood Sr. Christine was a stylish woman with a unique personality.

Growing up in Boston, Christine attended schools of the Boston Public School System. She graduated from Roslindale High School in the 1970's. After graduating from high school, Christine furthered her education and became a well known Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA). As her career began to blossom, she gave birth to her only daughter, Shamika Morgan. Christine worked for Massachusetts General Hospital for twenty (20) plus years diligently, and was known by name everywhere she would go.

Christine was a strong will, family oriented person. She was crazy about her grandchildren. She taught them faithfully about the Bible and music. Christine was such a care giver, not only through her profession, but also growing up taking care of her younger siblings.

Christine had a lot of style. She loved wearing pearls, colorful and flashy. She was a wonderful cook, well known for her tasty oxtails. She not only liked to give but she also loved to add to her collection of numerous things. She was a collector of magazines, bibles, books and pictures. She enjoyed singing and spending time with loved ones. Christine was a strong woman. She succeeded life's race as true and faithful servant. Her giving spirit and dedicated love allowed here to leave footprints in all the lives that came across her path. She lit up the hearts of her family and friends.

Christine is survived by her only daughter: Shamika (John W.) Morgan Sr. of New Bedford, MA; her mother: Berdel Underwood of Boston, MA; one uncle: Charles Howard of New Bedford, MA; an aunt: Dorothy Holman of Boston, MA; five sisters: Joanne (Felton) Johnson of Athens, GA; Darlene Underwood, Connie Underwood, Theresa (Quinton) Cundiff and Maxine (Quantai) Underwood all of Boston, MA; two brothers: Willie Underwood Jr. and Jonny Lover Underwood both of Boston, MA; two stepbrothers: Bruce Bishop of New York and Cecil Bishop of Boston, MA; four grandchildren: Phito J. Gondre, Toni Lipscomb, Lyric Morgan and John W. Morgan Jr. of New Bedford, MA; one great grandson: James P. Gondre of New Bedford, MA; one favorite cousin Allen (Brenda) Howard of Norwood, MA; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

