

Charlcie “Charlie” Mae McConico Wilson

June 11, 1944 – March 4, 2011

Charlcie “Charlie” Mae McConico Wilson, know to all as Charlie Mae, was born June 11 1944 to the late Nedrick and Asaline McConico in Calcis, Alabama. She was the eight child of Ned and Asaline. Asaline died when Charlie was a toddler and she was raised by mother’s sister Rosa Mae Pope and her daughter, Inez Perry. Charlie Mae was one of Ned’s sixteen children. On Friday, March 4, 2011 God gave her wings to fly home.

Charlie Mae was preceded in death by her brothers: Nedrick, Clarence, David Lee, Willie, Leroy, James and George. She leaves behind eight siblings to mourn for her: her sister, Mary Porter, Peter McConico (Shirley), and Catherine McConico all of Alabama, Quincy McConico of Indiana; Sherman McConico of Ohio, Lorenzo McConico of Indiana, Odessa McConico of Alabama and CJ McConico of Ohio and sister-in-law Mattie Ruth Mcconico of Alabama.

Charlie Mae graduated from Ullman High School in 1961 in Birmingham, Alabama. She attended Daniel Payne Community College in Birmingham where she received an Associate degree in early childhood education in 1963.

Charlie Mae moved to Boston, Massachusetts after she met and married Carl Mack Wilson Sr. on September 26, 1964 in Birmingham. To this union there children were born: Carla Elise Wilson-Barnes, Carl Mack Wilson Jr. and Wendora Patrice Wilson.

In 1967 Charlie Mae went to work at the Boston Public Library until she retired in October 2002. She received in 1969 a certificate of library Science. She was the Vice President of a local of the American Federation of State, City and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) Council 93 for many years.

At a very young age, Charlie Mae was baptized at Shiloh Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama. She was gifted with a strong alto and tenor voice that he used to minister to all God’s people from youth until God called her home. She sung all over the states of Massachusetts and Alabama with her two daughters at her side. Over the last four years her youngest granddaughter, Danielle Patrice Barnes, joined the Wilson Family Singers that was founded by Charlie Mae more than sixteen years ago.

In 1979 Charlie Mae became an active member of the Metropolitan Baptist Church under the pastorate of the late Rev. William L. Cooper. She was a trustee, missionary, choir director and an usher.

Charlie Mae McConico Wilson is survived by there three children: Carla Wilson-Barnes (Wayne), Carl Mack Wilson Jr. (Cristin Conti), and Wendora Price Wilson; six grandchildren: Carl Mack Wilson III, Bria Sibhan Wilson, Wayne Matthew Barnes, Jeremy Christopher Wilson, Danielle Patrice Barnes, Jason Anthony Wilson; special brother Alto Hayes; two special grandchildren Jason and Jamel Richardson along with a special daughter Gina Richardson of Bermuda; host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.