

Deaconess Mamie L. Gregg

November 22, 1919 – November 12, 2007

Obituary

Mamie was born November 22, 1919 in Darlington, South Carolina. She was the fifth of seven living children born to William and Louise. She attended school in Darlington, South Carolina and later moved to Washington, DC where she worked for the government for eight years.

In 1945, she moved to Boston and many years later, completed her education by receiving her high school diploma from English High Night School while working in a factory during the day. She continued her education by taking college courses at night at Westborough State Hospital and became a Licensed Practical Nurse.

After receiving her License as a Licensed Practical Nurse, she worked at the Hanneman Hospital, Massachusetts General and Lying-In Hospital. In 1984 she retired from the Brigham and Women Hospital.

Mamie was a member of Metropolitan Baptist Church where she served as a Deaconess, a missionary and a member of the hospitality committee.

She has been preceded in death by her mother, father, four brothers and a sister.

Mamie leaves to cherish her memory her brother Clayton, daughters Marie Greene from Ohio and Helen Gregg, Grandson Michael Gregg, Granddaughters: Stephanie Griffin from Illinois, Sheila Collins from Ohio, Great Granddaughters: Simone Gregg, Brianna Gregg, Bianca Griffin, Aliyah Griffin from Illinois, Great Grandson Brandon Collins from Ohio and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.